

Hometown, Handmade, Hard Candy Christmas

Bringing It Home to Thorntown

November 22, 2008

Join us for a celebration of all that is wonderful and memorable about the Christmas season. Experience the sights, sounds, tastes, and smells of Christmas past present and future. Visit with the Clauses, make some ornaments, sip some cider, hear and share the stories, listen to the music, find the perfect gift. Support local businesses and artists.

- 7:30 Breakfast at the shelter (Biscuits and gravy or cinnamon roll with coffee $3.00)
- 8:00 Craft vendors in the shelter
- 9:00 Breakfast ends
Museum open for displays of antique toys
Art center opens
Presbyterian Church dessert bar at the Art Center
- 10:00 Live Nativity on the trail
Three wise men on the trail
Santa at the shelter
Library tea begins
Make-and-take crafts begin at the shelter
Gourd painting at the shelter
Story time begins at the Library
Paper chain craft begins at the museum
- 11:00 Live Nativity ends
Lunch begins at the Christian Church (Homemade beans and cornbread $4.00)
- 12:00 Gourd craft ends
Story time ends
- 1:00 Larry Truitt Bluegrass Band at the shelter
Taffy pull at the Library
- 2:00 Lunch at the church ends
Caroling begins at the shelter
- 3:00 Taffy pull ends
- 4:00 Tea ends
Museum closes
- 6:00 Art Center closes

What's Happening Where?

Museum	Lions Park	Library	Sugar Creek Art Center	Christian Church
Toy Display	Breakfast	Story Time	Artist Demonstrations and gifts of art	Lunch
Paper Chain Craft	Live Nativity	Taffy Pull	Dessert Bar
Cranberry	Three Wise Men (musical group)	Tea
Drink and Toffee	Santa
	Larry Truitt Bluegrass Band
	Make and Take Crafts
	Vendors (food and craft)

Participating Businesses

- Cynthia's for gifts
- The Cottage on Pearl
- Stookey's
- The Lost Frontier